

Anne Brunila

Education:

Helsinki School of Economics, major subject: economics
D.Sc. (Economics and Business Administration) 1997
Lic.Sc. (Economics and Business Administration) 1989
M.Sc. (Economics and Business Administration) 1982

Current Position:

Finnish Forest Industries Federation
– President 2006-

Career:

Ministry of Finance
– Director General 2003-2005
– Deputy Director, Economics Department 2003
– Financial Counsellor 2002

Bank of Finland
– Adviser to the Board 2002

European Commission
– Adviser, Economic and Financial Affairs Directorate General 2000-2001

Bank of Finland
– Head of Economic Policy Division, Economics Department 1999-2000
– Head of Project Division, Economics Department 1994-1999
– Senior economist, Economics Department 1992-1994

Labour Institute for Economic Research
– Senior Researcher 1990-1992

Helsinki School of Economics
– Researcher 1982-1989
– Economics Lecturer 1989 and 1993

Positions of Trust:

Sampo plc (Financial Services Group), Member of the Board 2003-
Finnish National Opera Foundation, Member of the Board 2004-
Mehiläinen (Medical Service Provider), Member of the Board 2005-
Confederation of European Paper Industries CEPI, Member of the Association Directors' Committee 2006-
Economic Information Office, Member of the Board 2006-
Finnish Marine Administration, Chairman of the Board 2006-
International Chamber of Commerce, Member of the Board of the Finnish Department 2006-
International Council of Forest and Paper Associations ICFPA, Member 2006-
Wood Focus Finland, Member of the Board 2006-
WWF, Member of the Supervisory Board 2006-